To Whom It May Concern:

I am interested in a job position within your organization and have enclosed my resume for your consideration. The resume will provide details concerning my experiences and skills, however, it does not reflect my total capabilities or my passion for wildlife.

I am currently located in North Texas but very willing to relocate for the right job. I spent many years training horses and working cattle before I became involved with wildlife management. My past experiences with larger hoof stock make me an asset to programs looking to or currently running cattle on their game ranches as well.

With over 20 years of experience in the wildlife industry, I believe that I would be a valuable asset to your organization. I have experiences with management, marketing and sales, as well as extensive knowledge of service and industrial equipment. I am a highly organized, motivated, and an energetic professional with strong communication skills and the ability to "think outside the box" when it comes to problem solving and improving daily operations. Along with my agricultural background I also have skills with construction trades, accounting practices, security, and heavy machinery operations and sales. I am confident you will find my qualifications closely match your requirements and make me an ideal candidate for a position within your organization.

I am available this week to schedule a phone interview. I look forward to hearing from you soon and learning more about the position you have open.

Sincerely,

Antonio L. Puig

To Whom It May Concern:

RE: Tony Puig

Tony worked for Squaw Mountain Whitetails from May 2012-January 2103. His duties included ranch and facility management and maintenance, guiding hunts-whitetail and exotics, care and maintenance of whitetail deer herd (feeding, breeding activities, handling/sorting and darting).

Tony met or exceeded all expectations during his tenure. I both trust and respect Tony and would give him an enthusiastic recommendation.

Sincerely,

To Whom It May Concern,

Tony Puig is an outstanding worker that can help any department in any situation. He worked for me while I was the manager of the Engineering Department at Rough Creek Lodge, he worked so well with my self and my staff that when I became the Wildlife Manager I personally asked for him to come with me to be a hunting, recreation and equine guide. Later I asked Tony be my Outdoor Recreation Manager. Tony was a great asset to the Engineering department as well as the wildlife department, and would be an equally great asset to any operation that he would choose to work for.

Thank you,

To Whom It May Concern,

Tony Puig is a terrific guide here at Rough Creek Lodge; he is a leader among the staff. He leads the department in recognition through our positive guest comment program and has extensive knowledge in all things hunting, firearms, equine, guest relations, mechanics, carpentry, and business. Tony is a great asset to Rough Creek Lodge not only in the wildlife department but to all other departments on property.

Thank you,
